1. SECTION 89/28 – Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2551

SECTION 89/28. A shareholder or shareholders who hold shares and have the right to vote amounting to not less than five percent of the total number of the voting rights of the company may submit a written proposal in order to request the board of directors to include such proposal as an agenda of the shareholders’ meeting. The proposal shall indicate whether it is the matter proposed for information, for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, including details of the proposed matter for the annual ordinary general meeting or extraordinary general meeting, provided that it shall comply with rules as specified by the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board.

The board of directors shall include the matter proposed by the shareholders under the first paragraph as the agenda of the upcoming shareholders’ meeting. In the following cases, however, the board of directors may refuse to include such proposal as the agenda of the meeting:

- (1) the proposal does not comply with rules as specified in the first paragraph;*
- (2) the proposal is relevant to the ordinary business operation and the fact given by the shareholders does not indicate any reasonable ground to suspect the irregularity of such matter;*
- (3) the proposal is beyond the company’s power to produce the purposed result;*
- (4) the proposal was submitted to the shareholders’ meeting for its consideration within the previous twelve months and received the supporting votes of less than ten percent of the total number of the voting rights of the company, unless the fact pertaining in the resubmission has significantly changed from that of the previous shareholders’ meeting;*
- (5) any other cases as specified in the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board.*

In cases where the board of directors refuses to include the matter proposed by the shareholders under the first paragraph as the agenda in any shareholders’ meeting, it shall be notified as the matter for information in that shareholders’ meeting and specified the reasons of such refusal.

In cases where the shareholders in the meeting under the third paragraph pass a resolution, with a majority vote of the total number of shareholders present at the meeting and have the right to vote, to include the matter proposed by the shareholders under the first paragraph as the agenda of the meeting, the board of directors shall include such matter as the agenda of the next shareholders’ meeting.
