The Chairman allowed chance for shareholders and proxies to inquire and express viewpoints.

Mr. Ratchapol Pitisoookdanont, the shareholder, asked “Regarding loss results, does the Company have any measures to remedy it, apart from closing branches and staff cuts?”

The Chairman explained “In the past year, the Company had fully adapted itself, especially the e-Commerce team. They had a new team added. Moreover, each branch had registered an account on Facebook to sell book online, not just closing the branch as a passive measure. I realize that some Thai people or students may have difficult access to bookstores. In many provinces, there is only one SE-ED bookstore. Therefore, although it has suffered some losses, I try not to close the branch unless that branch has a serious big loss. At the same time, there are plans to open the branch as well.”

However, the traditional bookstores may not be able to generate generous sales. Therefore, it has pushed for a new concept to sell e-book and e-library in collaboration with business partners, such as reading e-books on Nok Air project, a new e-library system that pays according to the number of reading: if you read several books, you pay more, but if you read less, you pay less. A collaboration with the Institute of English to conduct examinations to assess English language skills. Being an exclusive representative of the international curriculum at the elementary and secondary levels of Cambridge Assessment International Education in Thailand.

In addition, the Board of Directors and business experts from many professional fields had brainstormed together to be a guideline for the Company’s business planning, new directions setting and strategies.

Mr. Rungkan Paisitpanichtrakul further explained “Regarding the educational institutes, there is still a demand for books, but only needed to adjust the products and services accordingly. In the past two years, the growth of sales in this area has clearly risen.

Regarding the branches, the Company cooperated with the shopping centers in the exhibition booths selling books in the shopping centers which received good feedback from customers. The Company also adjusted the branch’s concept by mixing new products, combining of digital technology to create a Digital Corner and setting up an Outlet Store to sell slow-moving products. There is a plan to open a new branch in the provinces that have no SE-ED Book Center bookshops and the suitable model will be applied in those areas. The Chairman thanked the shareholders and proxies who took time to attend this shareholder’s meeting and called for ending of the meeting.

Meeting Ended at 3:30 p.m.

After the meeting started at 2:00 p.m. There were 12 shareholders attending the meeting in person and 30 shareholders represented by proxies, totaling 42 shareholders representing the total 223,074,557 registered shares or 56.91% of the total 391,944,418 registered paid-in-capital shares. As there were more than 25 shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and there were more than one-third of said shares, it was considered adequate under the Company's regulation.

Vote Regulation for the Shareholders' Meeting

Each shareholder has votes according to the number of shares, or as authorized by proxies. In the vote tally, the Company will use the Vote 'Disagree' or 'Abstain' to deduct from the total vote from the shareholders who attended the meeting.

1. The shareholders who participate by themselves and by proxies in type A and type B cannot divide the votes in each agenda. However, the proxies in type C can divide the votes. And, in the voting in proxy letter type A and B, if the vote is over-vote or short-vote, or vote is divided, it will be considered as "Abstain" for all. In the letter of proxy type C, if the vote is over-vote, it will be considered as "Abstain", but if the vote comes short, the short-vote will be considered as "Abstain".

2. The Chairman will ask those shareholders who vote "Disagree" or "Abstain" to raise hand and pass the ballot card to the staffs for collection to allow the counting of vote to take place. In case, there is no shareholders vote "Disagree" or vote "Abstain", the shareholders are considered as vote "Agree" to the proposal.
3. Staffs will collect and count the vote by using barcode to scan the barcode stripe in the voting card to allow faster vote counting in each agenda and the announcement to the meeting will be made later.
4. In case the shareholder who has voting card and plan not to be in the meeting place during the vote of any agenda and also need to reserve the right to vote in the card in each agenda. The shareholder is required to vote in advance and hand in the voting card to the staff at the entrance door. 5. For voting the agenda in the issue of the election of Directors in replacement of Directors whose the term has expired, the company will temporarily suspend the registration for shareholders to the meeting during such agenda, so as to ensure the number of vote. This is to ensure that all voting are counted so as to abide by the rule governed by SEC, Thai Investor Association, Listed Companies Association, as well as to meet the desirable practice stated in the evaluation of Annual General Shareholder's Meeting. During the vote counting, the Company will collect all the "Agree" voting cards for recheck after the meeting. This voting agenda will be considered an individual vote.
